1. This is an application for grant of bail pending the appeal. I have perused the record. The record indicates that the marriage of the deceased who was educated up to M.A. took place with the applicant in the year 1998. At the time of the marriage, the applicant was already married to another girl by name Vijaya. Though it is possible that the marriage of the deceased may be with the knowledge of the deceased, record indicates demand of large amount is made. The deceased had already filed police complaint in March-2004 and two months after the complaint, she was compelled to go to her maternal house. There is a long history of harrasement. It appears that the deceased was a girl who knew her rights. In the circumstances, I am not inclined to grant bail to applicant no.1 who is husband and responsible for the misery of the deceased.

2. As far as applicant no.2 is concerned, she is the first wife of applicant no.1. There are no direct allegations against her and being a lady, I am inclined to grant bail to her.

3. In the circumstances, application is rejected as far as applicant no.1-Dilip Dattatraya Gaikwad is concerned. Pending the hearing and final disposal of the appeal, applicant no.2 Sou.Vijaya Dilip Gaikwad may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount. Application stands disposed off.
